YOUR CONCISE GUIDE TO ADF CAREERS

Career opportunities in the Navy, Army and Air Force
Today’s Australian Defence Force (ADF) is a modern, people-focused organisation. WE OFFER OVER 200 ROLES across a wide range of trades and professions. Many of these jobs will suit students not generally thought of as likely candidates for the Australian Defence Force.

In fact it’s fair to say that almost every Australian student could find a career that suits them in the Navy, Army or Air Force.

The purpose of this guide is to help you:

• Share essential information about the ADF
• Explain the key benefits of a career in the Navy, Army or Air Force
• Provide students with broad details about the career opportunities available
• Guide individual students towards the most appropriate entry options
HOW TO USE THIS GUIDE

1. Read about equality and diversity in the ADF

COMMITTED TO EQUALITY & DIVERSITY
The ADF supports and encourages equality and diversity within all facets of our workforce, and embraces Australians from every section of society.

Equal opportunities for women

Every role in the ADF is open to women, who receive exactly the same pay and opportunities for advancement as their male counterparts.

Diverse workforce

We believe a culturally and academically diverse workforce brings a unique blend of skills, strengths and knowledge to our operations.

Defence University Sponsorship (DUS) encourages students who are already undertaking a degree at an Australian university, to apply for an officer role in the Navy, Army or Air Force.

If accepted for sponsorship, in return for committing to military service on graduation (called a ‘return of service obligation’), students have their remaining course fees paid and receive a salary whilst completing their studies.

DUS gives your students the opportunity to:

- Study at the accredited university of their choice in Australia
- Complete their degree with remaining HELP debt paid*
- Receive a salary while still studying
- Receive one to four weeks of leadership training each year
- Go straight into a job upon graduation with job security

All that plus financial benefits such as free medical and dental care, a textbook allowance and subsidised accommodation.

Degrees that qualify:

Any degree that qualifies your students for an officer role can qualify for sponsorship. It must be undertaken at an Australian university accredited by the ADF.

- Accounting
- Applied Science in Medical Imaging
- Business
- Dentistry
- Commerce
- Economics
- Engineering (numerous disciplines)
- Environmental Health
- Finance
- Human Resource Management
- Law
- Management
- Medical Science
- Medicine (Ugrad and Pgrad)
- Pharmacy
- Physiotherapy
- Psychology (Honours)

Applications

To apply for sponsorship of the degree they are currently studying, students must first apply for a job in the ADF and go through the standard application process (applying online or at a Recruiting Centre). Applications for DUS can only be submitted following the completion of at least one semester.

RESERVE ENTRY

If a student is interested in one of the Services, but is concerned about the commitment or moving away from home, a part-time job in the Reserves could be the answer. They can choose a role that complements and builds on their day job, or opt for something completely different.

In the Army or Air Force Reserve your students will benefit from:

- Tax-free daily pay and allowances
- Expert training in their trade or profession
- Free food and accommodation when serving
- Free medical and dental on deployment
- A team environment where they’ll make friends for life
- Travel, adventure and memorable experiences

Navy Reserve roles are only available to those qualified in a trade or profession.

Flexible commitment
The amount of time your students commit to Reserve service will depend on the role and the service they choose, but may range from 20 to 100 days each year. The ADF adopts a flexible approach and ensures that Reserve activity fits in with work and family commitments.
